

I support the ARRL comments to the docket and believe that this system would cause excessive interference to licensed communication services.